

Target Market Determination

Group Personal Accident & Sickness Insurance

Important Information

This Target Market Determination (TMD) is required under section 994B of the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) and has been prepared by the product issuer, Chubb Insurance Australia Limited (AFSL 239687, ABN 23 001 642 020).

This TMD is designed to provide customers, distributors and our own staff with appropriate information to understand who this product has been designed for and who it is not suitable for.

This TMD is not a Product Disclosure Statement (PDS) and is not a summary of the product terms and conditions. Any advice provided in this document is general advice only. It has been prepared without taking into account any person's particular objectives, financial situations or needs. Always read the PDS, the policy wording and any other applicable documents that accompany the policy to ensure that this policy is appropriate for you. Whether you are purchasing this policy for the first time or if you have already purchased this product, you should review the information we have provided you whenever your circumstances change.

The TMD identifies triggers for us to review the target market and sets out the conditions and restrictions on distribution of the product described below.

In this document the terms "We", "us" or "Our" refers to Chubb Insurance Australia Limited, acting through its agent Point Underwriting Agency Pty Ltd, ABN 53 605 479 070.

Where a word is capitalised in this TMD and not otherwise defined, the definition of the word can be found in the Policy Wording & PDS.

Point Insurance Group Personal Accident & Sickness Insurance

PDS Reference: POINT-GPA01-PDS-1225

The Point Insurance Group Personal Accident & Sickness insurance is designed to cover many individuals (Insured Persons) who are associated together in some way through a connected group or activity, such as a business, an organisation or a facility (the Policyholder). The most common example of this would be employees of an employer, although there are many other valid situations where a group policy could be used to provide cover.

We consider that the characteristics of "groups" are:

- A legal entity with whom a contract of insurance can be entered into, e.g. a company, registered association, etc.
- A collection of individuals covered by the policy must be easily and unambiguously identifiable, e.g. a specific category of employee or common interest group
- The collection of individuals covered by the policy should be defined by a common trait other than a common desire to obtain insurance protection
- The individuals covered by the policy may be directors, employees, contractors and / or members of these businesses, organizations or facilities

➤ Distribution Conditions of this Product

This Product is issued by Point Insurance and designed to be distributed via:

- General insurance intermediaries and their representatives that are Australian Financial Services Licence holders.

Only these parties are authorised to distribute this Product as they understand the market this Product has been designed for.

We have a range of monitoring procedures in place and we provide training and support regarding the process to follow for obtaining quotes for this Product and administering the policies once purchased.

When completing a quote, the collection of information from a series of questions will help to determine if the group of individuals is within the target market for this Product.

Point Insurance will make risk-based decisions to determine its acceptance criteria about insurance cover that can be offered to the group. Some of the key acceptance criteria relating to this target market determination may include:

- Occupation of the individuals within the group
- Age of individuals within the group
- Location of the risk
- Benefit limits and sub-limits

➤ Reviewing this document

We will review this TMD within 12 months from the effective date to ensure it remains appropriate and in compliance with the objectives, financial situations and needs of the customer. After that initial review it will be reviewed at least every two years thereafter.

Furthermore, we will also review this TMD if any event or circumstances (called 'review triggers') occur that would reasonably suggest that the determination is no longer appropriate, such as:

- We make a material change to the cover provided by the Product,
- A change in our acceptance criteria (underwriting guidelines) that impacts on the suitability of the Product for the target market,
- A material change to the distribution of the Product,
- The discovery of a relevant and material deficiency in the Product's disclosure documentation,
- Systemic complaints and / or claims issues which indicate that the Product is no longer suitable for the described target market,
